Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 6, 2015
10 am Mass

Basilica of the Sacred Heart
University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, Indiana
Introit Psalm 118: 137, 124

Iustus es Domine, You are righteous, O Lord, et rectum iudicium tuum, and right is your judgment;
fac cum servo tuo deal with this servant of yours
secundum misericordiam tuam according to your mercy.
Beati immaculati in via, Blessed are those whose way is blameless, qui ambulant in lege Domini, who walk in the law of the Lord.
Gloria Patri… Glory to the Father...

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

Opening Hymn Mozart

1. Your hands, O Lord, in days of old Were strong to heal and save;
2. And then your touch brought life and health, Gave hearing, speech, and sight;
3. O be our mighty healer still, Great Lord of life and death; Re-store and strengthen soothe and bless, With darkness and the grave.
   To you they came, the claimed you Lord of light.
   And so, O Lord, be your almighty breath.
   On hands that work and blind, the mute, The palsied, and the lame, The leper set a-near to bless, Al-mighty now as then, In every street, in eyes that see, Your healing wisdom pour, That whole and sick, and part and shunned, The sick, and those in shame.
   every home, In every troubled friend.
   weak and strong, May praise you ever more._

Hark I hear the harps eternal ringing on the farther shore,
As I near those swollen waters, with their deep and solemn roar.
Hallelujah, praise the Lamb, hallelujah, glory to the great I AM.

And my soul though stained with sorrow, fading as the light of day
Passes swiftly o’er those waters to the city far away.
Hallelujah, praise the Lamb, Hallelujah, glory to the great I AM.

Souls have crossed before me, saintly, to that land of perfect rest;
And I hear them singing faintly in the mansions of the blest.
Hallelujah, praise the Lamb, Hallelujah, glory to the great I AM.

Psalm 75: 12, 13
mode II

Vovete, et reddite Domino Deo vestro,
Make vows unto the Lord your God
omnes qui in circuitu eius affertis munera:
and accomplish them,
terribili, et ei qui aufert spiritum principum:
to the awesome God who takes away
terribili apud omnes reges terrae.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Final Blessing
Alma Mater

Notre Dame, our Mother, tender strong and true,
Proudly in the heavens gleams thy gold and blue.
Glory's mantle cloaks thee, golden is thy fame.
And our hearts forever praise thee, Notre Dame.
And our hearts forever love thee, Notre Dame.

Closing Hymn

1. O God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Our shelter from the stormy blast,
   And our eternal home.
   O God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Our shelter from the stormy blast,
   And our eternal home.

2. Under the shadow of your throne
   Your saints have dwelt secure;
   Your arm alone, To endless years the same.
   You are God, To endless years the same.
   Under the shadow of your throne
   Your saints have dwelt secure;
   Your arm alone, To endless years the same.
   You are God, To endless years the same.

3. Before the hills in order stood,
   Short as the watch that ends the night
   Before the rising sun.
   Before the hills in order stood,
   Short as the watch that ends the night
   Before the rising sun.

4. A thousand ages in your sight
   Like an evening gone,
   As the watch that ends the night
   Before the rising sun.
   A thousand ages in your sight
   Like an evening gone,
   As the watch that ends the night
   Before the rising sun.

5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
   Soon bears us all away;
   Dies at the op'ning day
   Dies at the op'ning day

6. O God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Still be our guard while troubles last,
   And our eternal home.
   O God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Still be our guard while troubles last,
   And our eternal home.
