FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

NOVEMBER 28-29, 2015
VIGIL AND 10:00 AM MASSES

Basilica of the Sacred Heart
University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, Indiana
Ad te levavi animam meam:
Deus meus in te confido,
neque irrideant me inimici mei:
et etenim universi qui te exspectant,
Vias tuas, Domine,
demonstra mihi:
et semitas tuas edoce me.
Gloria Patri…

To you, I lift up my soul,
O my God. In you I have trusted;
Nor let my enemies exult over me;
Be put to shame.
make your ways,
known unto me, O lord
and teach me your paths.
Glory to the Father…

The Introductory Rites

Opening Hymn

Conditor alme siderum

1. Creator of the stars of night,
2. In sorrow that the ancient curse
3. When this old world drew on toward night,
4. At your great Name, O Jesus, now

Your people’s ever lasting light,
Should doom to death a universal verse,
You came; but not in splendor bright,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow:

O Christ, Redeemer of us all,
You came, O Savior, to set free
Not as a monarch, but the child
All things on earth with one accord,

We pray you hear us when we call.
Your own in glorious liberty.
Of Mary, blameless mother mild.
Like those in heav’n, shall call you Lord.
5. Come in your holy might, we pray,
Redeem us for eternal day;
Defend us while we dwell below
From all assaults of our dread foe.

6. To God Creator, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Praise, honor, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Final Blessing
Concluding Hymn

1. Come, O long expected Jesus, Born to set your people free;
2. Israel's strength and consolation, You, the hope of all the earth,
3. Born your people to deliver; Born a child and yet a king!
4. By your own eternal Spirit Rule in all our hearts alone;

From our fears and sins release us; Free us from captivity.
Dear desire of every nation, Come, and save us by your birth.
Born to reign in us for ever, Now your gracious kingdom bring.
By your all sufficient merit Raise us to your glorious throne.
