Reminders

As everyone is returning to campus and setting up their spring semester involvements, now would be a good time to make another push in recruiting lectors, EMHCs, greeters, sacristans, singers, and instrumentalists. Don't just send an email to your hall, take some time and go door-to-door and ask folks to join. Strike up conversations after Mass. Personal invitation is the best way to recruit!

Reading Reflection

- Today’s celebration marks the beginning of Jesus’s public ministry. The Wedding Feast at Cana is where Jesus works his first public miracle, the turning of water into wine.
- This is a miracle of hospitality. For his first miracle, Jesus doesn’t choose to raise the dead or cure someone of a severe sickness. Jesus’s first miracle focuses on hospitality, on providing for those at the wedding feast. We have opportunities to embrace radical hospitality through attending to one another’s needs every single day.
- Mary attends to the needs of God's children. Mary plays a pivotal role in the working of Jesus’s first miracle. May Mary be instrumental in helping us all to approach grace!

  Jesus, help me to be hospitable to my fellow brothers and sisters, embracing God’s radical grace.
  Mary, mother of God, pray for us!
