Reminders
Has your hall community been told about the Lenten Initiative? How is it going? Be sure to take part in this wonderful offering for a way in which to engage in preparing your heart for Easter in a new way.

Reading Reflection

- “Abraham put his faith in the Lord, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.” Putting our faith in God is a good to strive for. This does not mean that we know how to do this perfectly, or even that we know what putting faith in God necessarily looks like! Just as God gave to Abraham the land before him, so too God blesses us with graces. Pursuing our Lenten practices will help us to better see those graces.

- “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.” How well do we follow God’s directive to listen to Jesus? What are the ways in which we can better listen for Jesus and the ways in which he speaks to us in our daily lives?

Jesus, help me to trust in You.
