Psalm 103: 1-8, 11
II: 1 Corinthians 10: 1-6, 10-12

Reminders

It’s the halfway point of Lent! How are those Lenten promises going? Every moment in which we choose to pursue the Lord and the promises we’ve made him is its own recommitment. Let your most recent recommitment be today.

Reading Reflection

- “Sir, leave [the fig tree] for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it.” We cannot expect that which we are not willing to personally invest in to actually grow and bear fruit. This applies to our entire lives. If we want a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ, with God our Father, then we need to be willing to put in the work to achieve that. Without personal investment, growth simply will not happen.

- “The Lord is kind and merciful.” Look at the story of the Burning Bush, today’s first reading. God comes to Moses, desires to guide His chosen people. God is always desirous of helping us to grow closer to him, to become our best version of ourselves. It is our job to commit, to ask for His help and then actively pursue spiritual growth.

  Jesus, I rededicate myself to you this day. Help me to live out my Christian calling.
