Psalm 30: 2, 4-6, 11-13
II: Revelation 5:11-14
G: John 21:1-19

Reminders
It’s Easter! How will your community celebrate this wonderful season of the Church year? Perhaps an encouragement of the congregation to speak the responses more boldly, to sing more boldly: our God is bold! Christ is resurrected! Hallelujah!

Reading Reflection

- “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” When Peter responds that he loves Jesus, Jesus’s response turns that love outward, saying “Feed my sheep.” What does it mean for our lives that when we love Christ, the command he gives us is to turn our attention to the world around us and those living in it? How personally do we take this command of Christ?
- “Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something.” When we are lost, we need only turn to Christ and ask what to do. He will answer our prayers, even if in ways that don’t immediately seem to make sense to us. How are you turning towards Christ in times when you know not what to do or where to go throughout this Easter season?

Jesus, I love you. Direct me to your sheep, and I will take care of them.
